Energy Efficiency and SmartLiving™ Research Program

JOB POSTING: GRADUATE RESEARCH ASSISTANT

Qualifications:

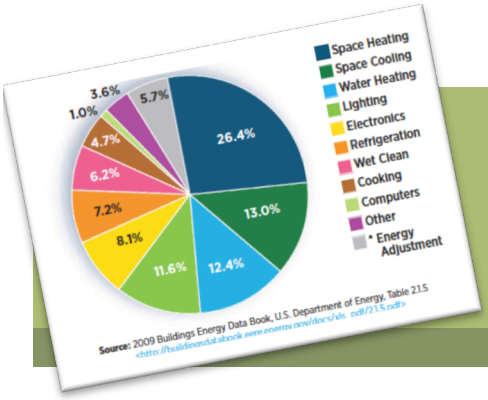
- Incoming Masters or Doctoral student in
  - Engineering
  - Computer Science, Information Systems
  - Business, Marketing
  - Sociology, Anthropology, Behavioral Sciences, Women's Studies, or related fields
- Working knowledge of Excel spreadsheets/large data sets
- Passionate and interested in global sustainability issues.
- Responsible, dependable, professional, and proactive.
- Innovative and thinks outside the box/grid.

Job Description:

1. Do you have the passion for and interest in energy, water, and environmental sustainability issues?
2. We need help with programming, processing and analyzing big data, and planning and executing pilot programs.
3. You will be working with a dynamic team that is passionate, efficient, and innovative. Bring your high energy and your aptitude to data management and analysis, and research methodologies.
4. Schedule: 19 hours per week located at UTSA AET Building.
5. Masters Students: $19/Hr
   Doctoral Students: Tuition plus $21/Hr.
6. Send CV/Resume and a Statement of Interest (1 page max) to:

Juan Gomez, Ph.D., P.E.
Associate Director & Associate Professor of Research
Texas Sustainable Energy Research Institute
AET Building. Office 2.304
juan.gomez@utsa.edu

Afamia Elnakat, Ph.D., R.E.M.
Associate Professor of Research
Texas Sustainable Energy Research Institute
AET Building. Office 2.310
afamia.elnakat@utsa.edu



UTSA | TexasSustainableEnergy RESEARCH INSTITUTE